█ UTI - Mid Cap Fund

Portfolio Commentary

- The valuations for the primary indices are above their one standard deviation of long term averages and hence on the expensive side. Any volatility in global markets could lead to correction in these valuations.
- The Fund primarily invests in companies that exhibit leadership quality in the segment they operate in; this could be in cost leadership, brand presence, and product innovation, resulting in companies earning a high Return on Invested Capital. When market enthusiasm is high and risk aversion is low, it is essential to stick to a well-defined process.
- The Fund focuses on buying good quality franchises and avoiding wealth destroyers that can take away longer-term returns.
- The Fund has added exposure to companies that benefit from improvement in the real economy as it emerges from the Covid trough. Some of these names benefit from the revival in the CV cycle, and also some lending names benefit from peaking out of credit costs and revival in disbursements. The Fund remains positive on the long term growth in the Consumer Discretionary and Consumer Services sectors. Building Materials is another space that the fund is quite positive on as the Real Estate sector sees revival.
- The Fund also remains positive on names that benefit from an overall recovery in the manufacturing industry. China plus one remains an important theme that would help outsourcing players in the contract manufacturing, specialty chemicals and contract research space.
- Healthcare Services is another space that the fund continues to like on a long term structural basis.

Why Invest in UTI Mid Cap Fund?

- A portfolio of mid-caps tends to offer higher growth potential than large cap stocks, however, this is accompanied by potentially higher volatility. The strategy endeavors to manage this by prudent diversification and risk management.
- A true-to-label mid-cap fund with a focus on scalable business models and long growth runway.
- The Fund house covers a large cross section of companies in the mid/ small-cap universe. Coupled with strong investment processes, enables this fund to benefit from such opportunities.
- With a bottom-up process, the fund has a blend approach for both value and growth style investing with growth bias.
- The Fund maintains a well-diversified portfolio and follows a patient approach towards companies in the portfolio.

Suitable for:

- Investors looking for investment in a portfolio that invests in medium sized companies
- Suitable for investors looking to supplement their core equity portfolio with the high growth potential of the medium-sized companies.
